

Dear KMBC Students & Campus Family,

We want to take reasonable steps to keep students and all members of our campus community as safe and healthy as possible. In response to the newest information regarding COVID-19, we have formulated the following plan. As you know, there will likely be changes as new data becomes available.

1. Following Spring Break, KMBC will not reopen campus until residential classes are scheduled to resume after Easter on Monday, April 13th.
2. Classes scheduled for March 24 - April 10 will be held digitally via Zoom. The remote schedule will follow the same campus schedule. Please be in contact with each of your course instructors for additional instructions. [Zoom instructions will be provided.]
 - a. If you need books or other supplies currently on campus, we can mail them to you. Please contact Zane Darland at zdarland@kmbc.edu. If you plan to come to campus to pick up your supplies or will be stopping here as you make travel arrangements home, please get permission from Jim Nelson, Kolton, or Adelle Semrow in advance.
 - b. If you or a family member has had a fever, cough, or shortness of breath, please do not come to campus. Your supplies will be mailed to you.
 - c. Discipleship Groups and Chapel will continue to meet and are required. Chapel services will be streamed via Facebook on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays. Your discipleship groups will meet via Zoom. Please be in contact with your discipleship leader or mentor for further instructions.
3. Because of the quickly evolving information and mandates related to COVID-19, the administration has chosen to make decisions regarding campus closure status on a biweekly basis. KMBC will send out a notice on Tuesday, April 7th in regards to the month of April. Watch your email!
4. Our scheduled Holiness Summit will be postponed.
5. The Persecution Conference will be evaluated and an announcement made by the end of next week.
6. As of now, no student workers will be utilized until on-campus classes resume.
 - a. There may be a few exceptions, but assume this includes you unless you are contacted by your supervisor.

7. Dorms should be emptied of anyone except those who absolutely need to stay. If you need to stay on campus, please get permission from the Dean of Students, Jim Nelson.
 - a. Students should not return to campus before on-campus classes resume unless specifically approved by the Dean of Students.
8. If the campus needs to remain closed for an extended period, we will work to prorate room and board charges accordingly.

Once again, please watch your emails for updates.

We will do our best to plan appropriately, but ultimately, we depend on our Heavenly Father for His guidance, wisdom, and provision.
